THE LAST OF THE BIG SPENDERS

Maurice Faherty from Co.Meath formerly from Innishmactareer and his wife Annie formerly Molloy from Mocharra country are holidaying in the area at the moment. He hopes Down will win the All-Ireland.

Mrs. Mary Buckley formerly Gildea is hokidaying down Kille way at the moment. She has a nephew named Michael who would definitely know who the Russian in the Kaliber poster is.

Benny Murphy and his wife Margaret are on holiday with Tom and Kathleen Murphy at the moment. A fishing holiday I believe, hope they take the bait. Benny is a fishing fanatic.

Any other holidays are heading back, I wonder what we will replace them with. Good Luck from "The Bridge" and I hope you enjoyed your visit to Shrule and Glencorrib.

SPORTS STADIUM

Today the footballers of Glencorrib play Kilmaine in the South Junior Semi-Final in Hollymount. I was going to ring them to find out if they were confident of victory but I know well they would only tell me they were unfit, had lots of injuries and would hardly field a team. Thats what they would tell me but I know they are fit and raring to go.If I rang Gerry O'Brien to get the Kilmaine story he'd tell me the same thing. You just couldnt be up to them.

RIVERSIDE CELTIC in their first league game last week drew 2 all with BARD CELTIC.Today(Sat)they played ORANMORE in Dalgan

In the O'Toole Cup next Wednesday evening Shrule play Aughamore in a semi-final replay in Garrymore. Saturday evening they play Garrymore in Shrule in the League. Sunday at one o'clock they play Crossmolina away. I told you two weeks back they were to play this game but then they went and cancelled it. They tell me the games are on and then they tell Fr.Rooney they're off. So it's off last week, its on today.

Good luck to P.J.McCabe and the local boys pulling tug-o-war today in Strokestown.

GOOD LUCK MESSAGE

Good Luck to Marie Martyn of Shrule who plays for the Mayo Ladies football team against Clare in Tullamore to-day (Sun). Will Marie be the first person to bring an All-Ireland medal to Shrule.

THIS WEEK____ PAGE THREE SPECIAL

LOCAL DEATH

The death took place last weekend of Miss Nano Maloney a native of Clonee. She was an aunt of the Mullin family, Shrule and Glencorrib. A retired N.T. her death took place at Castlemagarret Nursing Home. Her remains were removed to Shrule Church on Monday evening and after Concelebrated Mass on Tuesday, the burial took place in Donaghapatrick Cemetry. May she rest in Peace.

TEACHING IN BARNA

Annette Mullin former teacher in Shrule N.S. has taken up a teaching post in Barna N.S. Annette actually is now Annette Biggins wife of famous Glencorrib footballer Pat Biggins (he'll love me for that). I hear tell J.J. Keady from Dalgan Rd. had also taken up employment in Dublin, something to do with marketing. Good Luck to ye both.

FOR SALE

Trailers of Turf; 9 x 6 - £100 collected. Good quality turf. Phone 093 47707.

Two childrens bicycles in good condition to suit 5 - 10 year olds. Priced reasonable. Phone 093 - 33508.

ALL IRELAND TICKETS

A genuine plea for two All-Ireland tickets for George and Evelyn Mortimer of Shrule. Its a long shot I know but in the hope that somebody somewhere might come up with them. Contact George or Evelyn.

GLENCORRIB MAN WEDS

David Molloy of Glencorrib and Pauline Joyce of Turloughmore are getting married today in Lackagh Church with reception in the Ardilaun Hotel. David is a brother of local victualler James who is best man by the way. He has been all week preparing his speech.

Bits'n'pieces

Congratulations to Dan and Kathleen Shaughnessy, Ballynalty, on the birth of a baby...A boy or a girl?, I asked two young men in Glencorrib on Fiday evening and they almost came to blows. I can now confirm it's a girl, thanks to the intervention of their mother...Congratulations to Bill and Carmel Hyland, Dalgan Road, on their 25th wedding anniversary this weekend. I better keep my head down for a few days...Watch out for a special feature starting in The Bridge next week on the History of Shrule...It will include details of Fair days, Dalgan College, Ring Forts...you name it wehave it...even back to The Stone Age..with the help of Ger Geraghty we'll start next week..Who's next for a Page Three Pin-up...A Kerry footballer, it is rumoured.

Today we start a new feature in The Bridge of a page three pin up and the first lady to adorn this page is Deirdre Hyland from The Highway. Deirdre recently celebrated her 21st birthday. Fair play to you Deirdre for being a good sport.
To coincide with Deirdre's appearance we also have a quiz. Hanging in The Highway is a Kaliber poster. It features Eamonn Coghlan winning the World 5,000 metres in Helsinki in 1983. On the poster he is pictured overtaking a Russian, the question is, name that athlete??? Entry coupon at the botton of the page. First correct answer drawn in the Highway next Friday night gets a fiver.

ANSWER.....

NAME.....

ADDRESS.....

.....

There will be some crack in The Highway after this with Deirdre on page three and they wondering whats she filling, and who is your man behind her and who is the Russian.
